Dr. Schmidt was graduated from Howe High School in Billerica, Mass., Tufts College, The University of Missouri, and Tufts Medical School in Boston. For the past two years he has been resident physician to the Franklin County Memorial Hospital at Farmington.

Gould Senior Play Coming Thursday

Local patrons of dramatic productions at Gould Academy will be glad to hear of the popular three act play, "The Patsy," which is to be presented Thursday evening, April 15, in the William Bingham Gymnasium. This clever comedy is being presented by the Senior Class and hopes are high that many persons may be induced to buy tickets to see their undertaking, as proceeds from this play will be used to defray a part of the graduation expenses of the class. Rehearsals have been held for several weeks, and favorable reports are heard from Miss Leavengood, the coach as to the capability of each member of the cast to "put over" an excellent evening's entertainment.

The story of "The Patsy" concerns Patricia Harrington, a girl who runs second to her older sister. She is the Patsy who is blamed whenever anything goes wrong and is forced to remain in the background in order that her sister may be presented to advantage. Her father, a traveling man, is on her side, and finally declares his independence by putting Ma in her proper place. This brings Patsy's ultimate triumph and, needless to say, affords her happiness as the bride of the man she loves.

However, a synopsis of the plot alone can hardly do justice to the many clever situations to be found throughout the play. Much fun is sure to be had in Ma's (Rosamond Foss) constant walling and weeping, and Pop's (Dwight Stiles) efforts to cease being the hen-pecked husband and to be a regular he-man. To listen to Tony's (Lawrence Perry) rules to Pat (Constance Phillbrook) on how girls can get the men they are interested in, and in turn to watch Pat putting her suggestions into reality is only a part of the fun in store. For Pat, in her effort to become popular, has memorized a lot of wise and witty sayings and has used them so often that her mother is led to believe she is losing her mind. Rita Hutchins is Grace, Pat's older sister, who is an overbearing and hateful an older sister as you will see in many a day.

In fact, each member of the cast is developing an excellent character in the part each is to play, and it is doubted whether a Senior play of such promise will have been given at the Gymnasium for many years.

All friends of the Academy are urged to give their support to the Senior Class by buying tickets for "The Patsy," those who do will not be disappointed. The cast:

Dwight Stiles, Patricia Harrington, Rosamond Foss, Rita Hutchins, Grace Harrington, Constance Phillbrook, Billy Caldwell, Erland Westel, Tony Anderson, Lawrence Perry, Ann Lyndon, Robert Whitman, Mr. O'Flaherty, "Trip" Hasty, O'Neil Robertson.

April 1st Party A Success

The April 1st supper given by the Ladies Club and the Junior Guild proved a very successful affair, not only as to the number attending but also their enjoyment. For laughter was the keynote of the evening. Guests were cordially greeted at the door by the jester in cap and bells, with such words as, "sorry you came," "couldn't your husband cook the supper," "Didn't the neighbors bring in anything today?" Dignified men and women unsuspectingly walked around with the usual April Fool jokes pinned on their backs, "call me dearie," "kick me," etc. Signs were everywhere. "We Paint," "Merry Christmas," "Welcome, but don't stay long." The tables were set with teaspoons for serving, forks in the sugar bowls, carefully covered dishes which proved to conceal nothing more appetizing than crumpled paper. Following the supper of chop suey, rolls, salads, peas and coffee a very gay entertainment was put on by a joint committee from the Ladies' Club and the Junior Guild with Mrs. W. B. Twaddle as chairman.

The skits were unusually clever and the parts skillfully portrayed by F. B. Morrill, E. A. Van, F. E. Russell, Herman Mason, F. E. Hanson, Mrs. Ruth Carver, Miss Catherine Lyon, Mrs. Doris Lord and Edward Poole. Miss Carrie Wright gave a reading and encore.

The final number was the assembling of a theatrical cast drawn from the audience and of course proved to be another April Fool joke.

Again and again it has been proved that for success in our church work we must have the enthusiasm and strength of youth and the advice and aid of the experienced, with this thought in mind the Ladies' Club and the Junior Guild are planning many of their activities together.

BETHEL FIRE ALARMS SIGNALS

The fire alarm signals are re-printed below for the convenience of those who have forgotten the signals or lost their cards which were distributed when the siren was installed 15 years ago. With the villagers dependent on locating one of the Corporation engineers to sound the alarm, or being responsible for its proper operation themselves, it is imperative that all become more familiar with the necessary procedure.

The alarm boxes are located on poles at the foot of High Street near Bryant's store and at the head of Church Street near Ramsell's store. The alarm is not to be sounded for chimney fires. One blast of the siren, not repeated, is the signal for the pumper crew to respond to a call outside the village limits.

The signals below are still in effect for the Village Corporation.

One blast, repeated at one minute intervals--Broad, Mason and Paradise Streets.

Two blasts, repeated at one minute intervals--Mill Hill.

Three blasts, repeated at two minute intervals--Church, Park, Upper High, Upper Summer, Elm Streets.

Four blasts, repeated at two minute intervals--Main to Bryant's Store, Spring, Brighton, Chapman Streets.

Five blasts, repeated at two minute intervals--Lower Main, Mechanic, Clark Lower High, Lower Summer, Vernon Streets.

Six blasts, repeated at two minute intervals--Mills, Mill Yards, and Railroad Street.

MRS. MARY MCCORMACK

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary McCormack, widow of Maurice McCormack, who died April 4 after a few weeks illness, were held Tuesday at two p. m. from Greenleaf's funeral home. Rev. P. J. Clifford was the officiating clergyman. The body was placed in the tomb.

Mrs. McCormack was born at Oakfield, Me. April 14, 1887, the daughter of Charles and Henrietta Chambers Tibbets. About six years ago she came to Bethel and purchased the place known as the Twaddle place on the Songo road, and with her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Angello, has since made her home there. Mr. and Mrs. McCormack were the parents of four children: only one, Mrs. Angello survives. She is also survived by a grand-daughter.

Parish Pointers—

Oxford County
United Parish
W. I. Bull

The day is dreary and rainy, but we expect there will be no gloom in the North Waterford Vestry tonight when Willard Witham's lady gather to put on a supper and an evening's entertainment. The entertainment is to be a Chautauqua. That means that you are to get a week's entertainment in one evening. We hope you are planning to be there in spite of the rain to enjoy a good evening.

On Thursday evening there will be a Circle Supper and a Social at East Stoneham. We will be hoping to meet you there. We have not been able to gather there for an evening of fun for some time, and so let's have a good time together.

The unfortunate part of the foregoing items is that by the time you get your paper these will probably already have passed into history.

You will be wanting to know, too, what is happening on Friday evening at Center Lovell. To tell the truth, the Vestry on that evening will be dark. It might not be right to say that it will be buried in mud, but there will be no Circles at Lovell during the rest of this month, while we are waiting for the mud to dry, and the roads to improve.

Friday evening at Waterford the Junior Choirs of Waterford, North Waterford, and Stoneham are going to meet at the Wilkin's House. They will sing together, eat together and play together. These Choirs have been doing good work, and we want to help them have a good time, Friday evening.

We will be hoping to see you on Sunday morning at Church. Remember that by coming to Church you are not only doing that which will help yourself, but your presence there is helping others—in fact the whole community.

On Monday evening the Recreation Council will meet at Welchville. The United Parish will be represented by a delegation from the Outing Club and others. Speaking of the Outing Club reminds us. At their Annual Meeting on Monday evening, Mrs. Myron Lord was elected president for the coming year, and Larry Brown was elected Vice-President. Miss Barbara Fillbrown was elected Secretary, and Ralph Knight was re-elected Treasurer. The treasurer reported a profit of something over twelve dollars for the Winter Carnival in February. Suggestions were made for a Water Carnival for some time during the summer.

To make sure about the Circle at North Waterford, next Tuesday, you will have to wait to consult your Calendar on Sunday, for exact information seems to be lacking at present.

On Friday evening next week there will be a Social at East Stoneham.

Next Monday, Mr. Gledhill is expected to start for Washington for part of his vacation.

The Citizen is pleased to present to its readers the messages of a dozen of the progressive business concerns of the town, grouped as the Bethel Builders and Boosters.

The "Trade at Home" slogan may seem to be an overworked adage. There are countless opportunities offered by persuasive distant merchandisers for spending of money for goods of doubtful value. At times when there may be delay in getting the desired service nearby, one is apt to overlook the admitted advantages of home buying.

The merchants listed in this section are taking this space each week to present their goods and services in an attractive manner for your convenience and we are sure that you will receive full value and entire satisfaction at their hands.

HOW MODERN WOMEN LOSE FAT SAFELY

Gain Physical Vigor—Youthfulness—With Clear Skin and Vivacious Eyes That Sparkle With Orlene's Health

Here's the recipe that hundreds of women have used to get rid of their excess weight and bring out all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses. Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Krimphen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast—go down on your side and let your body relax. In a week you will be able to eat what you like and still lose weight. Notice also that you have gained in energy—your skin is clearer, you feel younger in body—Krimphen will give you a rejuvenated appearance.

Get a bottle of Krimphen Salts—the next to nothing and it lasts 4 weeks. If you don't feel a sharp improvement in health, no glowing cheeks, vigorous action, your money should be returned. Write: Many people find that the only real change necessary when taking Krimphen regularly is TO EAT LESS.

THE MAINE MEETING PLACE

Governors in 47 states paused in their manifold duties this week to acknowledge the gift of a package of Maine baking potatoes they had received from Governor Lewis O. Barrows of Maine.

Perusal of the missives from his contemporaries convinced Maine's chief executive that his gift had created something of a stir when served on gubernatorial tables throughout the country.

Prominent among the letters were those from the Governors of other potato raising states, all of whom praised the Maine product and predicted a great future for the tuber industry here when the potato advertising campaign gets under way.

Frank Murphy, Governor of Michigan, told Maine's chief executive that "from personal knowledge I can and do congratulate Maine most heartily on its marvelous potatoes. I never ate any that I enjoyed more."

Governor Lloyd C. Stark, of Missouri characterized his gift of spuds as "the finest potatoes I have ever seen."

Walter A. Huxman, Governor of Kansas said: "I want to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 3, also the splendid souvenir which came to the mansion from the Governor and from the great State of Maine."

"If your entire potato crop is of the value and quality of the potato which I sampled yesterday evening, Maine is to be congratulated and I hope that your product is available here."

"It was splendid of you to send me this souvenir and I think it is a splendid form of advertising for an important industry of your state."

"I want you to know that I appreciate it very much and that I am perfectly willing to boost the potato crop of Maine at any time or place."

From the southeast corner of the country, Governor Fred P. Cone of Florida wrote: "Please let me thank you for the potatoes that I received yesterday. I have never seen a more attractive arrangement and I assure you that they will be enjoyed a great deal."

Expressing admiration of his gift, Governor Richard C. McMullen, of Delaware said: "Delaware has been and probably will continue to be, a good customer of seed potatoes from the State of Maine. I have shown the gift to some of my friends and they agree with me that they are very fine."

Governor Harry W. Nice, of Maryland, who toured Maine several years ago, wrote as follows: "Thanks very much for your kindness in forwarding me the souvenir introducing the world's finest potato from the world's greatest potato country."

Their arrival demonstrates fully the justification of your claim. They are beautiful, and I know when they are served on my table I shall be equally loud in my praise."

"It has been my pleasure to travel through Aroostook county, and I have seen for myself just what you have done, are doing and will continue to do in supplying to the world this very necessary and delightful article of food."

Forecasting wide acceptance of Maine potatoes everywhere, Governor Leslie Jensen, of South Dakota wrote: "You have not exaggerated the merits of your product and it should not be a difficult task for your people to create a demand for potatoes to take care of the supply."

From Governor Clyde E. Hoxey of North Carolina, came the following praise for Maine potatoes: "The potatoes arrived, and I wish to thank you for these and assure you that we are enjoying them immensely."

Mrs. Hoxey has commented on how perfectly wonderful they are and we are deeply indebted to you for the thought in having them forwarded to us."

Attractively wrapped in cellophane, Governor Barrow's gift potatoes were selected specimens of famous Maine "bakers" packed in attractive peck boxes.

The gift was motivated by the desire to reveal to the country at large the high quality of Maine potatoes, increasing a concerted advertising drive to open bigger markets and obtain better prices for Maine's leading agricultural product.
